Dear Mayor Mann:

It is with great regret that I submit my resignation from the Lodi Arts Commission as of October 13, 1995, after nearly four years of happy and productive service. The reason for this decision is a positive one--my acceptance of the position of Arts Coordinator for the Commission.

I have watched and participated with pride in the development of the Arts Commission over the last few years into a commission who vibrantly supports and participates in the arts in Lodi. Fortunately for me, the thing that I would have missed most in leaving the commission I will not have to give up in my new position: the people.

I am looking forward to contributing to the future successes of the Commission and to furthering the cause of the arts in Lodi in my new position and I trust that our paths will continue to cross.

Sincerely,

Cynthia Morris-Olagaray
